

Privacy Statement

The Company respects the privacy of visitors to CaNickel Mining Limited's website. The Company collects personal data, such as your email address, only if voluntarily submitted by you. Any material, information or other communication (including questions, comments or suggestions) you transmit to CaNickel through this website will be considered non-confidential and non-proprietary. In making any such transmission, you agree that the Company will have no obligations of any kind with respect to the communications.

You are prohibited from posting or transmitting to or from CaNickel any unlawful, threatening, libelous, defamatory, obscene, pornographic, or other materials that violate any law. Submitting an employment application to us is another example of how you may be voluntarily providing us with personal information. Other examples include requesting inclusion on our email distribution list. CaNickel will only use your personal information when responding to your submission. CaNickel will not disclose your personal information to anyone else outside of CaNickel or its affiliated companies without your prior consent; however, CaNickel reserves the right to disclose your personal information if required by law.

Our servers automatically log information about visits to this website in the normal course of establishing and maintaining web connections. The server logs record statistical information, such as visitors' IP addresses, and time and duration of visit. We collect this information so that we may continuously improve our website content. These statistics are reported in aggregate form only. We do not link server log information to any other data in a way that would enable us to identify individual visitors.

This website makes use of cookies. Cookies are pieces of information transferred to the browsing computer and stored for record-keeping purposes. Knowing how a site visitor is using the site through cookies enables us to tailor our content and services to more effectively meet visitors' needs.

The development of CaNickel's policies and procedures for the protection of personal information is an ongoing process. Due to changes in technology and legal requirements we may revise this website Privacy Statement from time to time.